

Name _____

A pronoun is a word used to refer to a person or thing without giving a name; it replaces a noun.

(e.g. he, she, him, them)

Example: He liked the plane.

The word 'he' is a pronoun.

There can be more than one pronoun in a sentence.

Example: He liked the plane, she liked it too.

The words 'he' + 'she' are pronouns.

Underline the pronouns in each sentence.

1. The plane is here! Where is it?
2. Did he not see it?
3. Can she fly it or can only he fly it?
4. The airport is full of planes. They come and go all the time.
5. Jack can fly a plane, he is so clever.
6. You can learn too, it is not so hard.
7. They are going for a trip on the plane.
8. He is going with them.
9. Where are they going?
10. She is going with him but he wants her to go with them.
11. Why does she not go with them?
12. The pilot does not mind her going in his helicopter.

