Pelican Trish

pelican trish liked to fish.
for tasty treats and yummy eats.
sad to say and much to her dismay.
tricks were played when a visit she paid.

those fish hard to get.
seeing trish they simply fled.
they cried, we must stop old trish.
or she'll eat all us fish.

bluey whale, a big wise male.
a plan he had, simply mad.
but all agreed it may just work.
and stop pelican's silly quirk.

they wrote on a big black sign.
three words painted in bright lime.
it was very easy to read.
and they all hoped trish would heed.

when morning came one brave snappy.
held the sign and was very happy.
on a nearby pole was sitting.
pelican trish with her knitting.

after all trish thought, law is law.
fishing was to be no more.
no mistaking, the sign was clear.
it simply said, 'no fishing here'.
