

Teacher's Note - The Human Body

carpal bones	collar bone	femur	fibula
humerus	metacarpals	metatarsals	patella
pelvic girdle	phalanges	radius	ribs
shoulder blade	skull	sternum	tarsals
tibia	ulna	vertebrae

Suggested Activities:

- ❖ Try and obtain a skeleton or a large poster displaying the skeleton.
- ❖ Have the children identify the bones on the skeleton without looking back at their worksheet for the answers.
- ❖ Use this worksheet in conjunction with 'The Skeleton' worksheet. Available from P.E.T.
- ❖ Visit: <http://www.teachingtreasures.com.au/K-10Projects/5-6Projects.htm> for a project idea on bones and view an original student example.

Task: Recognize body parts, bones.

Learning Area: Health Education, health of individuals & populations.

Linking Learning Areas: English reading, writing. Science biological.