

EMU

Read the story.

The emu is the largest Australian bird.

It can not fly but has strong legs to run very fast.

The emu is in many Aboriginal stories.

The emu is part of the Commonwealth Coat of Arms.

They eat grass, berries and fruit.

They are a pest to farmers.

They are found Australia wide.

Underline the words that should begin with a capital letter.

the emu is the largest australian bird.

it can not fly but has strong legs to run very fast.

the emu is in many aboriginal stories.

the emu is part of the commonwealth coat of arms.

they eat grass, berries and fruit.

they are a pest to farmers.

they are found australia wide.