

This activity requires a little beach combing. Collect shells next time you visit the beach or if you can't get to the beach, buy some shells from a craft shop. Alternatively: make your own shells using paper or recycled materials.

Once you have the real shells or handmade shells, draw a pattern on a medium size thin board and glue your shells on your pattern.

You will need craft-glue if you want your shells to stick properly.

