

Genesis chapter 1 - 6:8

And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

Teacher Note / Answer Key

Genesis chapter 1 - 6:8 [KJV]

6. And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.
7. And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.
8. And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

Art Activity for Day 2:

Create a poster showing the division of the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament.

Handout: Provide the above text as an additional handout for those who would like to memorize the verses or use them as a wall hanging. Days 3 to 7 can be collected as the lessons progress.

Outcomes:

English: Work with anagrams, encourage reading and writing skills.

Science: Learn about God's Creation - 7 days.

Art: Understand what the horizon line is and dimensions.

Biblical: Understand that whatever God created was perfect. Because of sin it no longer is perfect.

Note: Authorized King James Version is used in worksheet and answer key.
